Poison Oak. Last Sunday, while at Mr. T. F. Hudson's, the great hay and carp man, who is perhaps better known than any farmer in the State, we noticed that his son, DeWitt, was going to shake off a skin ailment. Mr. H. called the little fellow to him and showed us how his skin, even on the palms of his hands, was coming off in flakes and a new skin appearing underneath. He explained that several years ago he had been badly poisoned with poison oak, and every spring he broke out and suffered greatly. He had applied every known remedy to relieve the sufferer, and employed physicians to attend him, but without success. Mr. Hudson continued, and seemed like to go in sight of a cure, when he said that the poison oak vine would cause the eruptions to break out afresh. After trying everything else, I read in the Banner-Watchman some notice of the new medicine at which I determined to try that also, and must confess that I had but little hope in it. But, as you see, success has been wonderful. It has driven every particle of the poison out of his system, and now putting a new skin on him. He is thoroughly cured, and the U. S. S. did the good work. I believe that it will drive out every drop of poison from the blood, and effect a cure in every case. There are a great many sufferers from poison oak in the country, and to such I can knowingly recommend this great medicine. It not only effects a certain cure, but

Dr. D. P. Bigger, surgeon of the N. P. hospital at Brainerd, was in St. Paul Tuesday. The doctor has done a great deal of good work among the injured employees of the above road since taking charge of the above hospital.—Labor Echo.

Everybody should attend the G. A. R. entertainment this evening and view the magnificent paintings of battle scenes taken by the famous war photographer Brady. They are a forcible reminder of what the boys in blue experienced for the sake of our country.

N. H. Ingersoll left last Saturday morning for Plover, Wisconsin, where he will stop a few days to visit his parents. From there he will go to Chicago, accompanied by his wife, where they will spend a couple of weeks visiting relatives in that metropolis. They expect to return to Brainerd about Dec. 1st.

The annual ball and banquet of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers which was to have been held Thanksgiving night has been postponed for a few weeks. There has been such an enormous amount of traffic on the road and the engineers have been so busy that they have not had time to make the necessary arrangements, hence the postponement.

The Minneapolis Saturday Spectator speaks of a former Brainerd pastor as follows:

Rev. M. D. Terwilliger lectured in Hennepin Ave. M. E. church Wednesday on "The Jewish Tabernacle." He appeared dressed in the costume of a Jewish high priest. The lecture was illustrated by a model one-sixth the real size of the Tabernacle and was exceedingly interesting. The audience was not as large as the merits of the lecture deserved.

Ed. Mahan, successful labor candidate for treasurer of Crow Wing county, is a farmer and one of the most popular men in his county. He is a member of the Brainerd L. C. and does much good work in getting the farmers interested in the order. The shop boys at Brainerd gave him a solid vote and he beat his competitor nearly two to one. Louis Tache, the labor candidate for Auditor, in the same county, is a book-keeper in the N. P. shops at Brainerd, and his vote nearly equaled that of both his opponents combined. This has been a great year for the labor boys.—Labor Echo.

Geo. S. Canfield and A. McDonald resigned on Monday last from a cruising expedition up the river, where they had been sent by the Brainerd Dam Co. to ascertain if there was sufficient stumpage on the lands condemned for over-throw to furnish the necessary piling for building the dam. They reported an abundance of timber and the company will in a day or two send in a crew of men to get out the piling. It is now understood that the work will be pushed rapidly forward and that the dam will probably be completed next summer. If this should be the case the town would certainly experience a boom next spring.

A meeting was called for Tuesday night at Holland & McClenahan's law office, for the purpose of organizing a toboggan club, but it failed to materialize. The idea is a good one, however, and another meeting should be called and a club organized as soon as possible.

A. E. Veon desires all sons of veterans in Brainerd and vicinity to meet at G. A. R. headquarters, in the basement of the Cale Block, on Saturday, Nov. 27th, for the purpose of organizing a camp. To be eligible the candidates is required to be over 18 years of age.

Whitlaw Reid, a New York editor, has just purchased a $500 residence. We are more easily satisfied than White-law. What we are yearning for at the present time is, to have some of our country subscribers who are in arrears bring us in a load of wood on subscription.

O. C. Foster, of this city, in company with his brother-in-law, R. S. Annis, of Mapleton, Minn., has bought A. E. Taylor's large grocery and provision store on Main street, and will take possession on Jan. 1st. Mr. Taylor has not decided what business he will engage in hereafter, but it is hoped, however, that Brainerd will not lose him and his estimable family.

In another column will be found a communication concerning the destitute condition of the family and children of Myron Davenport, the man accused of murdering the Polys. Whether Davenport be guilty or innocent it is not right that his innocent children should suffer, and we have no doubt that the good people of Brainerd and Aitkin will take immediate steps for their relief.

Union thanksgiving service will be held Thursday, Nov. 25, at the M. E. church. Rev. S. White will preach the sermon. Services will commence at 11 a. m. The plan so successfully inaugurated last year of providing a fund for the needy poor will be continued this year. Over $100 dollars in money, provisions, etc., were contributed last year. May there be the same generous response this year.

No Doubt. There is no doubt or question that we offer better bargains in blankets and comforters than anywhere else in Brainerd.

Pleasant Evening at Lake View. A very pleasant hop was indulged in at Lake View Wednesday evening. About sixteen couples were out to this favorite resort in the afternoon and evening, taking along Prof. Dresskell's orchestra and material for an oyster supper. Col. and Mrs. Sleepers were present to receive them. They tripped the "light fantastic" until 12 o'clock when supper was served, and then dancing resumed until about 8 o'clock a. m., when the party returned to Brainerd, all agreeing that they had a most enjoyable time. Those present were—Mrs. Campbell and daughter May, Mrs. and Miss Mamie Metcalf, Aggie, Sue and Beattie Mulrine, Mrs. A. V. Snyder, Miss Effie Halstead, Mrs. Ames, Mrs. W. A. Smith, Mrs. Starkey, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. Ed. Hazen, Miss Small, Mr. G. N. Day, W. A. Smith, W. S. McClenahan, Fred Stanley, Ed. Hazen, J. L. Smith, J. J. Howe, Jr., J. Cohen, Fred Parker, A. V. Snyder, Mr. Starkey, C. D. Johnson, Charley Taylor and Eugene Moore.

6 A. R. Entertainment. At the entertainment at the Opera House to-night and to-morrow evening there will be exhibited the great war views taken by the famous photographer Brady from 1861 to 1865. Battle fields, ships of war, Andersonville, Libby prison, Ft. Sumpter under bombardment, the fight between the Monitor and Merimac. These are actual scenes as they appeared and were caught by the camera almost before the smoke of the battle had disappeared. The dead and the dying are lying in the trenches, and you can in many cases recognize the faces of the men. These views are 25 feet in diameter, many of them colored and present a startling effect. The admission is but 50 cents, with gallery at 35 and children under 10 years 15 cents. Everybody should make arrangements to attend.

Married. OLSON—BERLINE—At the Swedish Lutheran church in the city of Brainerd, on Saturday evening, Nov. 13, 1886, by the Rev. P. G. Sjöblom, Mr. John Olson to Miss Mary Berline, both of Brainerd.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gustafson, where a grand reception took place, which was attended by the many friends of the bride and groom. An elegant supper was then partaken of, followed by excellent music and dancing, and all present greatly enjoyed the occasion. The groom, a popular, sober and industrious young man, is employed at the N. P. shops, and the bride is a young lady highly esteemed by all of her acquaintances. The following is a list of presents received by the happy pair:

Mr. and Mrs. Gust. Olson, a plush journey. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, a fine clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mahle and Mr. and Mrs. W. Gustafson, large silver casket and a silver butter dish and knife.

Communication. BRAINERD, Nov. 17, 1886.

Awaiting his trial for the alleged shooting of Johnny Polly, Myron Davenport is confined in our county jail for want of bail. His wife, who stood by him so nobly during his troubles with the Polys, is to day an applicant for aid from the county—which is denied her—a beggar on the streets of our city.

Their three little children are, if still alive, out on that fearfully desolate claim, living, God only knows how. To them their parent can give no aid.

The sweet tempered people of the once beautiful city of Aitkin, forming themselves into a vigilance committee, have ordered these innocent little children to quit the neighborhood on pain of immediate violence if they did not go.

Now, whatever we may think of the deeds of this unfortunate man, it certainly is not right that the children should suffer.

Ten men ought to be found who are willing to go on his bond, and then Davenport could easily get his family together and not only provide for them but, if necessary, to again protect them against violence.

I have applied personally to many of our citizens to go on this bond, and could find only two or three who were willing to do it. In that respect I have done my duty, and now I take the privilege of publicly calling the attention of the good people of Brainerd to this case of misery, desolation and want. If you turn a deaf ear to their cry, may I not live to see your wife a beggar, and your little ones half starved and alone—threatened with violence.

Respectfully, W. A. FLEMING.

The annual ball and banquet of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers which was to have been held Thanksgiving night has been postponed for a few weeks. There has been such an enormous amount of traffic on the road and the engineers have been so busy that they have no time to make the necessary arrangements, hence the postponement.

The Minneapolis Saturday Spectator speaks of a former Brainerd pastor as follows:

Rev. M. D. Terwilliger lectured in Hennepin Ave. M. E. church Wednesday on "The Jewish Tabernacle." He appeared dressed in the costume of a Jew, with high priest. The lecture was illustrated by a model one-sixth the real size of the Tabernacle and was exceedingly interesting. The audience was not so large as the merits of the lecture deserved.

Ed. Mahan, successful labor candidate for treasurer of Crow Wing county, is a farmer and one of the most popular men in his county. He is a member of the Brainerd L. A. and has done much good work in getting the farmers interested in the order. The shop boys at Brainerd gave him a solid vote and he beat his competitor nearly two to one. Louis Tache, the labor candidate for Auditor, in the same county, is a book-keeper in the N. P. shops at Brainerd, and his vote nearly equaled that of both his opponents combined. This has been a great year for the labor boys.—Labor Echo.

Geo. S. Canfield and A. McDonald returned on Monday last from a cruising expedition up the river, where they had been sent by the Brainerd Dam Co. to ascertain if there was sufficient stumpage on the lands condemned for over-throw to furnish the necessary piling for building the dam. They reported an abundance of timber and the company will in a day or two send in a crew of men to get out the piling. It is now understood that the work will be pushed rapidly forward and that the dam will probably be completed next summer. If this should be the case the town would certainly experience a boom next spring.

Mr. Taylor has not decided what business he will engage in here, after, but it is hoped, however, that Brainerd will not lose him and his estimable family.

In another column will be found a communication concerning the destitute condition of the family and children of Myron Davenport, the man accused of murdering the Polleys. Whether Davenport be guilty or innocent it is not right that his innocent children should suffer, and we have no doubt that the good people of Brainerd and Aitkin will take immediate steps for their relief.

Union thanksgiving service will be held Thursday, Nov. 25, at the M. E. church. Rev. S. White will preach the sermon. Services will commence at 11 a. m. The plan so successfully inaugurated last year of providing a fund for the needy poor will be continued this year. Over 100 dollars in money, provisions, etc., were contributed last year. May there be the same generous response this year.

PLEASANT EVENING AT LAKE VIEW.
A very pleasant hop was indulged in at Lake View Wednesday evening. About sixteen couples were out to this favorite resort in the afternoon and evening, taking along Prof. Dresskell's orchestra and material for an oyster supper. Col. and Mrs. Sleepers were present to receive them. They tripped the "light fantastic" until 12 o'clock when supper was served, and then dancing resumed until about 8 o'clock a. m., when the party returned to Brainerd, all agreeing that they had a most enjoyable time. Those present were—Mrs. Campbell and daughter May, Mrs. and Miss Mamie Metcalf, Aggie, Sue and Bessie Mulrine, Mrs. A. V. Snyder, Miss Effie Halstead, Mrs. Ames, Mrs. W. A. Smith, Mrs. Starkey, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. Ed. Hazen, Miss Small, Mr. G. N. Day, W. A. Smith, W. S. McClenahan, Fred Stanley, Ed. Hazen, J. L. Smith, J. J. Howe, Jr., J. Cohen, Fred Parker, A. V. Snyder, Mr. Starkey, C. D. Johnson, Charley Taylor and Eugene Moore.

Communication.
BRAINERD, Nov. 17, 1886.

Awaiting his trial for the alleged shooting of Johnny Kelly, Myron Davenport is confined in our county jail for want of bail. His wife, who stood by him so nobly during his troubles with the Polleys, is to day an applicant for and from the county—which is denied her—a beggar on the streets of our city.

Their three little children are, if still alive, out on that fearfully desolate claim, living, God only knows how. To their mother they cannot come. To their mother they cannot come.

The sweet tempered people of the once beautiful city of Aitkin, forming themselves into a vigilance committee, have ordered these innocent little children to the neighborhood on pain of immediate violence if they did not go.

Now, whatever we may think of the deeds of this unfortunate man, it certainly is not right that the children should suffer.

Ten men ought to be found who are willing to go on his bond, and then Davenport could easily get his family together and not only provide for them but, if necessary, to again protect them against violence.

I have applied personally to many of our citizens to go on this bond, and could find only two or three who were willing to do it. In that respect I have done my duty, and now I take the privilege of publicly calling the attention of the good people of Brainerd to this case of misery, desolation and want. If you turn a deaf ear to their cry, may I not live to see your wife a beggar, and your little ones hungry, deserted and alone—threatened with violence.

Respectfully,
W. A. FLEMING.

Married.
OLSON—BERLINE—At the Swedish Lutheran church in the city of Brainerd, on Saturday evening, Nov. 13, 1886, by Rev. J. H. Powell, Mr. John Olson to Miss Mary Berline, both of Brainerd.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gustafson, where a grand reception took place, which was attended by the many friends of the bride and groom. An elegant supper was then partaken of, followed by excellent music and dancing, and all present greatly enjoyed the occasion. The groom, a popular, sober and industrious man, is employed at the N. P. shops, and the bride is a young lady highly esteemed by all of her acquaintances. The following is a list of presents received by the happy pair:

Mr. and Mrs. Gust. Olson, a plush lounge.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, a fine clock.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mahle and Mr. and Mrs. W. Gustafson, extra painting of a silver butter dish and knife.
Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Lagerquist, silver cake basket.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenberg, silver pickle caster.
John Erickson, silver, gold-lined cream pitcher.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lind and Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Dorell, silver sugar bowl and six silver tea spoons.
Reinhold Lund, a silver, gold-lined spoon holder.
Miss Julia Peterson and Miss Christine Hasselgren, silver tea pot.
Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sundberg and Miss Jennie Sundberg, silver and cut glass fruit basket.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moberg, six silver tea spoons.
Mr. and Mrs. M. Hagberg, pair of silver napkin rings and six silver table spoons and case.
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lagerquist, set of silver tea spoons and case.
Henry Holm, six silver knives.
Master G. Wm. Gustafson, gold sugar spoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurston, decorated glass vase.
Mrs. F. W. Farnham, artistic toilet bottle.
Miss Mary Farnham, decorated glass celery dish.
Miss Sadie Farnham, six decorated porcelain tumblers.
Master Charlie Farnham, dust pan and brush.
Miss S. Jackson, Turkish towel and wash stand cover.
Henry and Otto Moberg, nice easy chair.
